SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001	03-md-1570 (GBD)(SN) ECF Case

This Document relates to:

Burnett, et al. v. Al Baraka Inv. & Dev. Corp., et al., No. 03-cv-9849 (GBD)(SN)

[PROPOSED] DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST THE TALIBAN FOR PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS ARISING UNDER 18 U.S.C. § 2333

Upon consideration of the evidence and arguments submitted by Plaintiffs in Burnett, et al. v. Al Baraka Inv. & Dev. Corp., et al., Case No. 03-cv-9849 (GBD)(SN), whose claims arise from the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001, and the Judgment by Default for liability only against inter alia The Taliban entered on April 7, 2006 in this Multi-District Litigation (ECF No. 1756), together with the entire record in this case, it is hereby:

ORDERED that this Court possesses personal jurisdiction over Defendant The Taliban by virtue of its conduct supporting the terrorist activities of Al-Qaeda including but not limited to the Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001 which involved terrorist attacks conducted on American soil in New York, Pennsylvania, and Virginia;

ORDERED that this Court possesses subject-matter jurisdiction under the ATA as thousands of United States nationals were injured by reason of the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001 which constituted acts of international terrorism resulting in significant harm including injury and death;

ORDERED that the prior judgments entered against the Islamic Republic of Iran and certain of its agencies and instrumentalities be extended against The Taliban as jointly and severally liable for the compensatory damages amounts previously awarded to the Burnett Moving

Plaintiffs set forth on Exhibit B who sustained personal injuries as a proximate result of the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001 under the civil-damages provision of the Anti-Terrorism Act (“ATA”), 18 U.S.C. § 2333(a); and it is

ORDERED that the compensatory-damages judgments for the ATA Plaintiffs set forth on Exhibit B be trebled in accordance with the mandatory provision of the ATA that provides that successful plaintiffs in an ATA action “shall recover threefold the damages he or she sustains and the cost of suit, including attorney’s fees”; and it is

ORDERED that the ATA Plaintiffs set forth on Exhibit B be awarded prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96%, compounded annually, from September 11, 2001 through the date of the judgment entered in the amount of $_____; and it is

ORDERED that Plaintiffs identified in Exhibit B may submit an application for punitive damages or other damages (to the extent such awards have not previously been ordered) at a later date consistent with any future rulings made by this Court on this issue, and it is

ORDERED that the ATA Plaintiffs set forth on Exhibit C to the Eubanks Declaration may submit additional motions seeking damages for personal injuries of U.S. nationals sustained as a proximate result of the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001 at a later time in accordance with the Court’s previously articulated mechanism for seeking such judgments; and it is

ORDERED that any default judgment issued by this Court against The Taliban as a Defendant in this MDL is not binding on the determination of damages for any other Defendant within this MDL.

Furthermore, the Court respectfully directs the Clerk of the Court to terminate the motion at ECF No. 9553 in 03-MDL-1570 (GBD)(SN) and ECF No. 1126 in 03-cv-9849 (GBD)(SN).
